David,

There would be a slight increase in maximum demand but not a huge increase.

Hi David,

I understand that the scope of development always changes until the DA is lodged.

If the maximum demand of the proposed development remains unchanged, the supply arrangement will not be impacted.

Regards,

David Ho

David,

The quantities and mix of residences and retail have changed on this project and everytime someone sends in an application we are queried that we are quoting the incorrect mixes.

Would you like us to update this enquiry with the current proposal?

Regards

David Taylor
