

Andrew Sanderson

Director, Principal Access Consultant & Project Manager

---

Andrew is a qualified project manager and professional access consultant with over 15 years experience as a company director providing access consulting and home modification services to private and public sector clients in Australia.

He specialises in working with architects, designers, engineers, government agencies and managers of buildings, to ensure the requirements of universal design are incorporated into proposed developments.

Qualifications & Professional Associations

- Diploma of Project Management
- Accredited Member, Association of Consultants in Access, Australia
- Past board member of Association of Consultants in Access, Australia
- Past member of the Telstra Access Advisory
- Past board member of Arts Access

Expertise

- Contract management
- Project management
- Access consulting
- Training

Key Projects

Major projects include the following examples:

- RAAF East Sale Redevelopment
- Melbourne Convention & Exhibition Centre
- Southern Cross Station
- Melbourne Museum
- Melbourne Grand Prix Event Management
- Supreme Court Building
- RAAF East Sale
- Werribee Plaza Redevelopment
- National Ice Sport Centre
- Royal Children's Hospital
- Building Audits
- Crown Entertainment Complex
- Dexus National Access Strategy