

I don't agree with the proposed changes and hope council will Listen to and respect the community who call Shell Cove home. Cramming more houses into the area than planned is not needed nor necessary. Listen to the community and do what's right. This is major decision and will have lasting implications. Don't stuff it up!