

When we bought into Shell Cove the plan for the marina was already in place but now with the new planning for a bigger hotel and apartment blocks it will increase congestion with more people and more traffic in what will be an already full to capacity suburb.