

My objection to this amendment is because all blocks in Shell Cove have been sold with the vision of a much smaller town centre and waterfront area with views over the harbour front property's but with these changes it changes that a lot. I think this is known to Shellharbour council who chose to release this after elections and not before showing that this is not what the community wants its just a cash grab for council and the developers.