

I just think you are taking away the lovely coastal feel of the area, already, we have so many townhouses going up which has spoiled the area, & people who bought here for the view, have lost their outlook with these being built in front of them, Plus, the parking is going to be so crowded on weekends, & we do not need a hotel to be built higher.