Whilst we can not unscramble the egg - Shore School are entitled to get some return on their investment- their current proposal is a total affront to the environment we chose to live in. There must be a public enquiry before any approval to proceed is granted; an enquiry that has real power to steer new developments in a more environmentally friendly direction. The main and obvious threat is to the increased traffic and parking demands on the surrounding streets. Shore has clearly exported its increased vehicle movements to their neighbours. At the very least, they should be required to increase parking spaces within the school grounds. The second issue that needs to be addressed is a permanent embargo on the portion of old vegetation in the South-West corner of the original estate. That, and the natural spring which feeds it should be isolated from interference forever.
