I write to express my disgust at the proposed development for the Graythwaite site in North Sydney. Shore private boys school is planning to expand to accommodate an additional 500 students and 50 staff without providing any additional parking. As a resident of Chuter street, a nearby side-street, I am extremely concerned that our existing lack of on-street parking will become even more of an impediment to daily life in our community.

Our neighbourhood is already suffering a significant loss of amenity through the loss of a large expanse of publicly accessible parkland. Please don?t allow this to be compounded by additional traffic chaos.

Yours sincerely,

David Berle
